

EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES LATE FILED AGRICULTURAL CLASSIFICATION APPLICATION

Date: ______ Alt Key: _____

The Property Appraiser's decision to grant or deny the application will be reflected on our web site (https://vcpa.vcgov.org) and on the Notice of Proposed Taxes (TRIM notice), you receive in mid-August. If you filed an application between March 2 and July 31, the TRIM notice you receive will likely reflect your agricultural classification. If not please contact our office. If you filed an application between August 1 and August 20, the TRIM notice you receive will not reflect a change in your agricultural classification. You will receive an amended TRIM notice after August 21, 2023 with your agricultural classification status; if your agricultural classification has been denied additional documentation will be enclosed. If you file an application between August 21 and September 15, you will receive an AMENDED TRIM notice. If the agricultural classification you applied for is not reflected on the AMENDED TRIM you may appeal by filing a petition with the Value Adjustment Board. Petitions are available to file through the Value Adjustment Board web site (https://vab.vcgov.org/) or at any of our Property Appraiser's offices. It failed to make a timely filed application for agricultural classification(s) as required by Florida law on or before March 1, due to the following extenuating circumstance(s): It affirm that the information above is true and correct. Signature and Date Accepted by	The March 1 st agricultural classification application deadline has pasthis statement of extenuating circumstances must be completed and the Volusia County Property Appraiser's office by September 15, 2023.	• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • classification. If not please contact our office. If you filed an application between August 1 and August 20, the TRIM notice you receive will not reflect a change in your agricultural classification. You will receive an amended TRIM notice after August 21, 2023 with your agricultural classification status; if your agricultural classification has been denied additional documentation will be enclosed. If you file an application between August 21 and September 15, you will receive an AMENDED TRIM notice. If the agricultural classification you applied for is not reflected on the AMENDED TRIM you may appeal by filing a petition with the Value Adjustment Board. Petitions are available to file through the Value Adjustment Board web site (https://vab.vcgov.org/) or at any of our Property Appraiser's offices. I, own the real property located at: I failed to make a timely filed application for agricultural classification(s) as required by Florida law on or before March 1, due to the following extenuating circumstance(s):
your agricultural classification. You will receive an amended TRIM notice after August 21, 2023 with your agricultural classification status; if your agricultural classification has been denied additional documentation will be enclosed. If you file an application between August 21 and September 15, you will receive an AMENDED TRIM notice. If the agricultural classification you applied for is not reflected on the AMENDED TRIM you may appeal by filing a petition with the Value Adjustment Board. Petitions are available to file through the Value Adjustment Board web site (https://vab.vcgov.org/) or at any of our Property Appraiser's offices. 	 	tice you receive will likely reflect your agricultural agricultural classification you applied for is not reflected on the AMENDED TRIM you may appeal by filing a petition with the Value Adjustment Board. Petitions are available to file through the Value Adjustment Board web site (https://vab.vcgov.org/) or at any of our Property Appraiser's offices. 	your agricultural classification. You will receive an amended TRIM no	otice after August 21, 2023 with your agricultural
I, own the real property located at: I failed to make a timely filed application for agricultural classification(s) as required by Florida law on or before March 1, due to the following extenuating circumstance(s): I affirm that the information above is true and correct.	agricultural classification you applied for is not reflected on the AMENI the Value Adjustment Board. Petitions are available to file th (https://vab.vcgov.org/) or at any of our Property Appraiser's offices.	DED TRIM you may appeal by filing a petition with rough the Value Adjustment Board web site due to the following extenuating circumstance(s): I affirm that the information above is true and correct.
Signature and Date Accepted by	I affirm that the information above is true and correct.
	Signature and Date	Accepted by Telephone: 386-775-5228 Fax: 386-775-5260