* "Vacant" and "Non-consequential" counts shown refer to parcels where separate parcel-numbers are required for identification, but the property is either completely exempt (as in government and Institutional) or is basically small and unusable with negligible value. These include agricultural and non-agricultural properties, such as right-of-ways, bar pits, ditches, common area properties, possessory interests, sub-surface parcels, etc. Centrally Assessed properties are railroad properties valued by the State of Florida. Tangible Personal Property (TPP) has a $25,000 exemption (2008 enactment) that provides for small business to pay on their real estate, but not on their machinery and equipment. The TPP exemption also covers mobile home attachments.

* "Vacant" and "Non-consequential" counts shown refer to parcels where separate parcel-numbers are required for identification, but the property is either completely exempt (as in government and Institutional) or is basically small and unusable with negligible value. These include agricultural and non-agricultural properties, such as right-of-ways, bar pits, ditches, common area properties, possessory interests, sub-surface parcels, etc. Centrally Assessed properties are railroad properties valued by the State of Florida. Tangible Personal Property (TPP) has a $25,000 exemption (2008 enactment) that provides for small business to pay on their real estate, but not on their machinery and equipment. The TPP exemption also covers mobile home attachments (15,938 of the 37,895 shown).
